

K-love radio in our community is a positive source of radio. Me and my family get positive and encouraging music that is safe for children to listen to without concern of content. They give us updates of events in our area good for family to enjoy. Entertainment info and up to date music. It's the only station my family listens too. Please don't take K-love from us. We support this important source of entertainment.